	1 Are you going to be away from home for the holidays? If so, plan now who will care for your pets!	2 SSShh...many animals have started their winter hibernation. Don't disturb them - they need their rest. What animals hibernate?	3	4 Don't forget to add gifts for pets to your shopping list. They deserve treats too. 	5 Give a gift to all animals-spay or neuter your pet! There aren't enough good homes for all of them!	6 December is a busy month. Don't let pets be forgotten!
7 A gift certificate from an animal shelter is an EXCELLENT gift!	8 Does your pet need a new ID tag? That would be one of the BEST (and useful!) gifts you could give him/her!	9 Don't ask for a pet as a gift. Pets should be welcomed into a new home quietly and gently. Wait 'til after the hectic holidays. Then you'll have more time to spend getting to know each other.	10 For the holidays (and always!)... Unchain my heart! 	11 What problems can animals face during the rush of the holiday season? How can you help them? 	12 Instead of buying a present for someone on your list, make one instead. The best gifts are from the heart. 	13 Chewing on holiday decorations can be dangerous to your pet. Put decorations out of their reach.
14 Make holiday cards with humane themes for friends and family. 	15  This is the season for sharing and giving. But every month is a good month for that. Can you think of the last thing you did that was sharing or giving?	16 Remind people not to give pets as gifts. If your family wants a pet, wait until the holidays are over - then visit an animal shelter to choose a pet.	17 Make today your "pet project" day. Bathe and brush a pet. Now every member of your family is spiffed up for the holidays. 	18 The snow can be a lot of fun, but it can be cold too. Can you think of ways to help the animals that are out in the cold and snow? 	19 Give a gift to nature this holiday season. Save a tree by wrapping your gifts with newspapers and comics.	20  Don't throw food on the side of the road. Wild animals may be hit when they come to eat it. Put trash in its proper place.
21 Brrr...winter begins today. Don't leave your pets outside when it's cold. Be sure to give them lots of warm hugs. It will warm you both!	22 First day of Hanukkah	23 Holiday excitement is in the air. Burn off some of your energy by playing with your pet. You'll all feel better! 	24 Christmas Eve	25 Christmas What is a gift you can give anytime? Your friendship and kindness!	26 Kwanzaa begins If you don't know what this holiday is about, ask someone that does. Understanding one another helps our world.	27 Tonight would be a great night for a big bowl of popcorn and a great movie. Rent "Shiloh" and watch it with your pet.
28 Think of ways that you can pass on the message of kindness to all animals. Call a friend to share ideas.	29 Are you all wound up from the holidays? Take your pet for a brisk walk. They'll appreciate the attention.	30 Think back on how you helped make the world a better place this year. What can you do next year to help even more?	31 New Year's Eve Keep your pet safe from the festivities.
