

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				1 National Author's Day! Write a story of your own about your pet or one you know.	2 November is Peanut Butter Lovers Month! (count the birds as peanut butter lovers too!)	3 Time to prepare cars for the winter. Help your parents check for antifreeze spills. Animals love the taste, but it can be deadly.
4 	5 National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week! Ask your local shelter how YOU can help them help all the homeless animals! 	6 Election Day	7 Did you know that you have a special power? You have the power to be kind to others, including animals. Use this power!	8 Make today's lunch earth & animal friendly! No meat and all recyclable materials! 	9 If you put up a birdfeeder, be sure to fill it all winter long. The birds will depend on you for their food! 	10 Veterans Day Thanks to all, people and animals, that have served our country!
11 When you're stuck inside, you might feel bored. It's worse for wild animals that are caged. Show wild animals that you care. Let them stay free!	12 It's National Children's Book Week  Share your favorite animal story with your class	13	14 To get ready for winter, the snowshoe hare changes color from brown to white. How do other animals prepare for winter?	15 Have you adopted a pet from an animal shelter? Try it! You'll save a life! 	16  	17  Since this is Peanut Butter month, treat the birds by spreading peanut butter and birdseed onto a pine cone and hang it in the trees.
18 The holiday season is coming. Don't forget about your pet in all the excitement!	19	20 Name some things for which you are thankful. Our pets are thankful for all the love & care we give them!	21 Holiday Hint: You may eat too much, but don't give your pet turkey bones or other food that will harm him or upset his stomach.	22 Thanksgiving Day 	23 On your Thanksgiving vacation days, spend some extra time with your pets. With all the excitement of the holiday season, they will need some extra love and attention. Be sure to give thanks for the animals.  Thank You!	24
25 Did you know that dogs originated from the wolf? How does your dog look like a wolf?	26 As it gets colder outside, don't forget your pets. Are they warm enough or do they need some special attention? 	27 Remember... Cats stay indoors!  There are too many dangers for cats outdoors.	28	29 There are not enough homes for all the animals. Be sure to have your pet, spayed/ neutered. 	30
